

The Doctor's Advice

By Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Elliott Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in any answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any drug, can order of wholesaler.

been prescribed with great success and the number of letters received daily from the hundreds of grateful people who have been cured of catarrh would indicate its curative value. Get from the druggist a two-ounce original package of Viane powder, mix a level teaspoonful with an ounce of vaseline oil and apply well up in the nostrils twice a day. Also use the following in conjunction with the above: Use one-half teaspoonful of the Viane powder to a pint of warm water, sniff the water through the nostrils several times a day and your catarrh should soon be cured. To prevent a return this should be used occasionally.

"Tom M." writes: "I am only twenty years old, but my hair is falling out very rapidly. My scalp is covered with dandruff. What can I get to cure it?"

Answer: To cure dandruff and stop falling hair use plain yellow mineral oil. What hair oil is used regularly it will cure any scalp disease and prevent premature baldness. Many people have reported a cure by using two or three applications.

"J. W." writes: "I should be the happiest woman in the world if I could find a true remedy to help me gain flesh. I have regular features but I am so thin that I am starved. Can you give me a prescription?"

Answer: I receive daily as many gratifying letters from users of three-grain hypophosphite tablets. These little tablets can be bought at any up-to-date drug store in sealed packages. Full directions are given. I advise that you begin taking them at once and continue their use for several months and you will gain flesh. Many people report that a two-month treatment will increase their weight from 15 to 25 pounds. Hypo-phosphite tablets will also improve your complexion, giving you a rosy glow and a more increased sparkle to the eyes.

"American Girl" writes: "For some years I have been troubled with rheumatism. I have tried almost every cure, but they did not help me."

Answer: The best known prescription for the cure of rheumatism is: Iodine of potassium, 2 drams; sodium bicarbonate, 4 drams; wine of colchicum, 1/2 oz.; compound essence of sassafras, 1/2 oz.; mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful at meal time and at bed time, and you will not only be relieved, but cured, if you continue its use for a short time.

"Frank S." writes: "I would like to have the formula for a reliable cough cure as I have a very severe cough which is becoming very annoying."

Answer: The best remedy that I know of for coughs and colds is made by mixing a 2 1/2 oz. bottle of concentrated essence menthol with a 1/2 ounce-made sugar syrup. You will find full directions on the bottle how to make and use. This will make a full pint of the finest and cheapest cough medicine obtainable.

"Helen" writes: "My nostrils and throat are badly affected with catarrh, and my breath is very offensive. I also suffer a great deal with headache and pain in my eyes. Can anything be done to help me?"

Answer: Antiseptic Viane powder has

WITNESSES BREAK DENIAL RECORDS

They Refuse to Admit Anything Which Might Prove Damaging.

ASSAILED BY PROSECUTOR

Possibility of Verdict in Dynamite Conspiracy Case Before January 1.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Indianapolis, Ind., December 14.—All denial records at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial were broken to-day when Defendants William Shupe, of Chicago; George Anderson and Peter J. Smith, both of Cleveland, Ohio, completed direct and cross-examination. Bitterly assailed by District Attorney Charles Miller, they refused to admit they conspired to win the union shop by violence or had anything to do with interstate transfers of explosives.

Incriminating incidents sworn to by as many as a dozen government witnesses were denied by the three labor leaders. Admission would have meant their conviction and would have involved several of the thirty-eight defendants also.

Smith particularly aroused the ire of the prosecutor by denying that a special delivery package, alleged to contain a dynamite fuse, was delivered at his home in July, 1910. Post-office records were introduced to show that a package was delivered and signed for by a mark opposite "Mrs. J. P. Smith." Anderson said he was at the Smith home that day, and neither saw nor heard of such delivery. The women at the house could sign their own names, both men testified.

Deny Meeting McManigal. They denied meeting Otto McManigal at the Cleveland railroad station, when the confessed dynamiter was on his way to blow up open shop jobs at Akron and North Randall, Ohio. Anderson gave the lie to several government witnesses, who testified they saw him in the vicinity of North Randall.

Smith and Anderson, whose nickname is "Nipper," tried to establish a reputation as advocates of peaceful strike methods in the face of letters and alleged statements the government had introduced to show that the men inaugurated a reign of terror in Cleveland for a number of years following in 1905 the opening of the American Bridge Company strike.

Smith became heated in his denials. Judge Albert Anderson, cautioning him at one point: "If you are a witness for these other defendants, you owe it to them to tell the truth. You are impudent."

Shupe's cross-examination served to show that the Iron Workers' convention in Milwaukee, in September, 1911, did J. J. McNamara all possible honor, after he had been arrested for the Los Angeles Times explosion.

The closing days of the defense early next week are expected to develop sensations. It was still undecided to-night whether Defendants Herbert Hockin, alleged double-crosser, and Olaf Treitmoen, Pacific coast leader, would be called in their own behalf. There is a possibility now of a verdict in the case before January 1.

FOUR FIRMS ENTER PLEAS OF GUILTY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., December 14.—Representatives of nine business firms of the city were charged in the Police Court to-day with violating the State laws governing the bureau of industrial statistics on warrants issued at the instance of J. B. Clinefin, representing that department. The Old Dominion, Alexandria and Virginia Glass Companies entered a plea of guilty to employing child labor, and the minimum fine of $25 was imposed in each case. The Bliss Silk Throwing Company entered a plea of guilty to working female employees more than ten hours a day, and the minimum fine of $25 was imposed. The Alexandria Gazette, Alexandria Daily News and the Alexandria Sunday Times, together with Lozano Dry Goods Company, M. A. Hanrahan, were charged with failing to provide separate toilets, as provided by law. All were given ten days in which to comply with the law, no fine being imposed.

In commemoration of the one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of Washington's death, three memorial wreaths were this afternoon placed on Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon by the Masonic craft. The affair was under the auspices of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, it being an annual custom with that organization.

A second wreath was placed on the tomb by Frederickburg Lodge, No. 4, Frederickburg, and the third wreath came from Washington Lodge, No. 12, of New York. The officers of the local lodge, together with representatives from the two foreign lodges and officers of William L. Ekins Lodge, of Philadelphia, made the pilgrimage to Mount Vernon this afternoon on the palace car "Mount Vernon."

Plans are being made for a poultry and pet show, which will be held in this city the second week of next December. Already the promoters of the enterprise have assurances that there will be an exhibit of 300 birds, and those fostering the movement declare that they will have a total of 200 birds. Those in charge are poultry fanciers of this city, Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince William Counties.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED Chamber of Commerce of Pulaski Holds Meeting. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pulaski, Va., December 14.—At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday night officers for the ensuing year were elected, as follows: W. C. Price, president; R. R. Moore, president-elect; W. W. Cave, secretary; H. W. Steger, treasurer. The foremost matter under consideration was the matter of the financial end of the proposed silk mills which are to be established here. The committee includes O. P. Jordan, J. W. Miller, K. E. Harman, J. F. Wyser, A. T. Eskridge and W. C. Price. The managers of the silk mills have determined upon seeking to have a mill and ask the city to provide a location and erect a building, which it is agreed will be purchased by the company within ten years.

The Chamber of Commerce, in connection with the towns on the North Carolina division of the Norfolk and Western, which runs from Pulaski to Galax, a distance of fifty-five miles, seeks to have a double passenger and mail train put upon this branch, there being only one train daily. The additional train would mean many thousands of dollars annually to Pulaski's trade, and it would permit persons living in that section double opportunity to get out. A committee composed of members of the Chamber of Commerce and representatives from along the branch will wait upon the railway officials at an early date seeking better train service.

For many months Pulaski has been living in anticipation of the establishment of a city mail service. The Mayor announced that so far as the city was concerned he had complied with all the requirements of the Post-Office Department for the service. It had been intimated that this service would be started this fall, but as yet no orders have been received and the secretary was instructed to ascertain the cause of the delay through the local postmaster.

INJURED BY EXPLOSION. Three Men Hurt While Threshing Peanuts; One May Die. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Claremont, Va., December 14.—While threshing peanuts to-day in Prince George County, J. Harrison, white, and Tom Wiggins and Frank Harris, colored, were seriously hurt by the explosion of the traction engine. The

MAYOR APPROVES NEW FRANCHISE

(Continued From First Page.) Board of Aldermen, and after indecision up to the calling of the roll, the Richmond and Henrico again won, this time by a vote of 8 to 6. The vote of President Adams decided the award. The scene of the struggle was immediately transferred to the Mayor's office, with attorneys for the Northern syndicate and the Virginia Railway and Power Company urging a veto and the Richmond and Henrico Company asking for approval. Mayor Ainslie granted a public hearing of the matter in his office on December 11, when lawyers for both factions argued the validity and policy of the franchise from every standpoint.
